INTRODUCTION

My name is Marselo “Lucky” Cadillo. I wrote this book so that you don’t make the same mistakes I did when I first began my adventures in the casinos. I’ve been a pretty lucky person and have had a lot of experience in playing and winning at slots. Slots has been my game. If you follow the lessons I learned through years of experience you’ll see that you will be lucky too.

Playing slots is fun filled action especially when you win. I’ve had many jackpots and have had a lot of luck in the casinos but sometimes I made mistakes. I had to write this book to share what I learned from the mistakes I made over all the years that I’ve played. My experiences taught me to follow a set of personal rules that keep me a “lucky” winner. I can tell you that by following the rules you’ll do well. You’ll be amazed at how well these techniques work.

Please remember, not to make gambling a habit. Have fun, take your blessings and enjoy.

Sincerely with love,

Marselo Cadillo
